Congratulations to...

Our Mathematicians of the week:

Lexie (Maple)
Isabelle B (Chestnut),
Elsie W (Willow)
Ellie-May (Oak)

Our Writers of the week:

Tyler (Maple)
Isabel C and Evie D (Chestnut)
Max R (Willow)
Max (Oak)

Last week's highlights...

Our Maple children have been making their own pages for their Argos catalogue. They have also been busily practising their Nativity and finding lots of ways to make 5. I wonder how many ways they can tell you...

Our Chestnut children have been learning more about the Great Fire of London. They have been creating their own questions and practising using question marks. Swimming is going very well and the children are enjoying their sessions. They have also been creating silhouette fire pictures in art.

Our Willow children have been learning all about King Alfred. They have also been exploring circuits and conductors as part of their electricity project.

Our Oak children have been solving multi-step problems, creating leaflets about the Parthenon and painting their clay pots. They have also been learning about hand mudras and have been challenged to create one for each of our core values.

My thanks go to, this week's 'roving reporters'.
