Congratulations to...

Our Mathematicians of the week:

Kiki (Maple)
Jessica (Chestnut),
Dorothy (Willow)
Ryan (Oak)

Our Writers of the week:

Amber E (Maple)
Evie B (Chestnut)
Jamie (Willow)
Octavia (Oak)

Last week's highlights...

Our Maple children have been practising for their upcoming Nativity. They were brilliant in our dress rehearsal! They have also been creating Christmas cards and calendars.

Our Chestnut children have been sorting 2D and 3D shapes. They have also been reading Little Robin Redbreast and exploring the real meaning of Christmas.

Our Willow children have been creating picture books based on Traction Man and making their own circuit Christmas cards. They also performed wonderfully in their own violin concert. Thank you so much for coming and supporting Willow class – there was an amazing turnout and a sea of smiling and deservedly proud parents!

Our Oak children wrote newspaper articles based on the Trojan war and demonstrating clear bias. Which side would you choose to blame? They have also cloaked their classroom in impressively long paper chains and beautifully... and generously ☺ decorated our Christmas trees!

My thanks go to Rowan and Josh S, this week's 'roving reporters'.

Attendance Update:

Week commencing 27th November - our whole school attendance was 95%. We have unfortunately had a few illnesses making their way through school.

Our year to date attendance is currently 96%.
Thank you for your continued support!

We still need these back please – we value your views!

Please send your Parents' Evening feedback forms back to school.

We really value your opinion and we would love to share your motivational message with your child!

If you haven't had a meeting with your child's teacher yet, please contact the school office.

Your support is paramount in ensuring your child's success.
