Headteacher: Simon Morley

Learning together for life

Tuesday 28 March 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

It is with mixed emotions that I am putting pen to paper to advise you that Simon Morley has secured a promotion as Head Teacher to a much larger school in Boston and as a result will be leaving Kirkby on Bain at the end of the Summer Term.

Simon joined us here in September 2010 following the untimely passing of Peter Douglas and in that time here has made a real difference to the School, not least that over the last few years we have maintained our Ofsted ratings in an ever challenging environment and been able to secure funding to extend Chestnut Class and build a New Hall.

The Governing Body will now start the process of selecting a new Head Teacher and as that develops I will keep you up to date with progress.

In the meantime, whilst there will be plenty of opportunities to say 'Thank You' to Simon and to celebrate his achievements here, it is important to recognise the Good Name which the school has within the education community and the importance which I will place on that as we look to the future.

If anyone does have any questions, please can I ask that you either catch me outside school or alternatively direct them to the Clerk to The Governors, Michelle Lee, who can be found in school most days and she will pass them onto me and I will arrange to respond.

I do know that Simon will also write his own letter to you in due course but before then can I, on behalf of everyone, pass on my congratulations to Simon on this well-earned promotion.

Kind regards,

Paul Brewster
Chair Of Governors
