Text/Focus	British Values – Democracy focus. Our opinions matter in school. Pupil Voice. Children talk about their own and others experiences and feelings about belonging to different groups. Lots online to launch British Values focus this half-term.	Is it hard to say sorry? Explain that there are four types of prayer – sorry, praise, ask and thanks. Focus on ‘sorry’ prayers. Option to use Link 3 (see below)	‘Epiphany’ comes from the Greek word meaning ‘to reveal’, as it is when the baby Jesus was ‘revealed’ to the world. What impression do we give to others? Do we trust/have faith in ourselves?	Explored through the ‘Ten Commandments’ Adam and Eve did not say sorry and were also punished. However, God gave them what they needed, and Christians believe that God still wants to be close to His people and gives guidelines to help this. These are God’s kind words and actions known as The Ten Commandments.	Example - Baptism is an invitation to belong to God’s family. Children recognise that for Christians, Baptism is the beginning of life in the Church community.	“Your beauty should not come from outward adornment, such as elaborate hairstyles and the wearing of gold jewellery or fine clothes. Rather, it should be that of your inner self, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in God’s sight.” 1 Peter 3:3-4

Week Two	Feeling you belong	Wishing you had said sorry	Recognising when to trust	Living a kind life	Staying hopeful	Encouraging others to be the best they can be
Text/Focus	British Values – Individual Liberty focus. Pupils make individual choices within a safe, secure, supportive environment. Pupils are encouraged to their individual needs.	What is regret? Genesis 2:4-3:24 The part of story where Adam and Eve eat the fruit is known as “The fall” and is important for much of Christian belief. Explore how they sinned and regretted it. (Use Stonewall resource pack)	“Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.” This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, “Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.” (Matthew 22:37–39).	“Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love.” Ephesians 4:2 “When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom.” Proverbs 11:2
Week Three	Helping others to feel they belong	Forgiving someone who has hurt or upset you	Trusting others	Kindness to other people	Our actions give hope to others	Ensuring others benefit from your best
Text/Focus	British Values – Rule of Law focus. High expectations govern the classes, learning environments and wider school community and these expectations are consistently adhered to improve their behaviour and conduct of all pupils so they feel they belong in the	Continued from previous week. By being disobedient, Adam and Eve “fell” from being close to God. Adam and Eve did not say sorry and were also punished. How does it feel to forgive and be forgiven? Week Seven	The world needs difference	The cross as a symbol of forgiveness for the world				Reflecting and celebrating your success
	Different Families, Same Love (Use Stonewall resource pack available online)	Jesus' words "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing" are found in Luke 23:34. The cross is a symbol of faith and salvation. At Christmastime, it reminds us of the true purpose of Jesus' coming and of the gift of eternal life we have been given because of His sacrifice.				St Mark's Gospel Chapter 1 verses 14-20 Key message - we should live the way Jesus lived. This means to offer our lives in doing good here on earth. We are special and we must use our gifts to help others, celebrate our own successes and the success of others.
